Cleveland in Early Chapters. Shaw Finishes Game.

KLEPFER ALSO BUMPED

Nationals Knock Cleveland Twirler Out of the Box in the Sixth Inning.

By WILLIAM PEET.

After dropping three games in a row the Cleveland Indians came to life yea-sterday and handed the Nationals a 7-to-beating, lambasting Southpaw Harry Harper all over the lot, and getting to Jim Shaw at the right time in the second lumbar.

Harper did not have a whole lot on the ball. His finish came at clusion of the fifth inning, when clusion of the fifth inning, when the stams, an error, and sacrifice, three runs. Big Jim Shaw, who, was caught in a jam during the but outside of that one liming pretty fair ball.

Nunamaker's triple gave the Yankee's triple gave the Yankee's the first game. His long hit, coming in the fifth inning, scored Boone and Shawkey's single sent Nunamaker home. Score:
